Announcing: Our Elora Community Theatre Coming Season at the Fergus Grand Theatre

Yes Virginia, There Is a Santa Claus

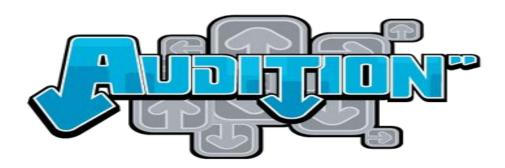

By Andrew J. Fenady

Based upon the teleplay by Val DeCrow and Andrew J. Fenady

Directed by Deb Stanson

December 13-15 & December 20-22, 2019

Inspired by a simple, poignant letter written over 100 years ago by 8-year-old Virginia O'Hanlon to the editor of the New York Sun—and by the timeless editorial response printed on the front page of the Sun. Virginia wondered and wrote: "Dear Editor, I am 8 years old. Some of my little friends say there is no Santa Claus. Papa says if you see it in the Sun, it's so. Please tell me the truth. Is there a Santa Claus?" Ed Mitchell, the Sun's editor, gives the assignment of answering Virginia's letter to Frank Church who, until his wife and baby died last Christmas Eve, was the Sun's best and most dependable reporter. Yes Virginia, There Is a Santa Claus is a play for young and old, magically reaffirming life's highest beauty and joy—"the eternal light with which childhood fills the world."

Directed by Stan Jensen

February 14-16 & February 21-23, 2020

In this comedy with a heart, Mom has been dead for 11 months and shows up at her husband's birthday party as a ghost with a mission. Like Clarence in "It's A Wonderful Life," she has to accomplish a task to earn her wings. Only what the task actually is, is a mystery. There are so many things to fix. The problem is complicated by the fact that the only person who can hear or see Mom is her daughter who has been ordered by the court to spend Dad's birthday with him as part of her Anger Management Program. One by one the family's secrets are peeled away revealing a shocking truth that surprises even our ghost.

Little House on the Prairie the Musical

Book by: Rachel Sheinkin
Music by: Rachel Portman
Lyrics by: Donna di Novelli
Based on the ''Little House'' books by Laura Ingalls Wilder

Directed by Acey Kaspar

May 1-3 & May 8-10, 2020

Through the magic of live theatre, the musical follows the Ingalls family's journey westward and settlement in South Dakota where Ma and Pa Ingalls hoped to make a better life for their children. It tells the story of their struggle to keep their land claim. In story, song and dance, we see the Ingalls suffering the hardships of winter blizzards and prairie fires as well as rejoicing in the settlement of land and town. Most of all, the story follows Laura as she grows from the wild child who loved to run free into a woman who embraces the responsibilities of her own future while struggling to remain true to herself.
